

A photograph of a pond with several large green lily pads and two white water lilies in bloom. The water is dark blue. The text is overlaid on the image.

BSA Northern Tier
Troop 264, Brookeville-Olney, MD

E062811A Crew "A"

June 27 to July 6, 2011

Parts 1 – 2 – 3 – 4

7th Day – July 5, 2011

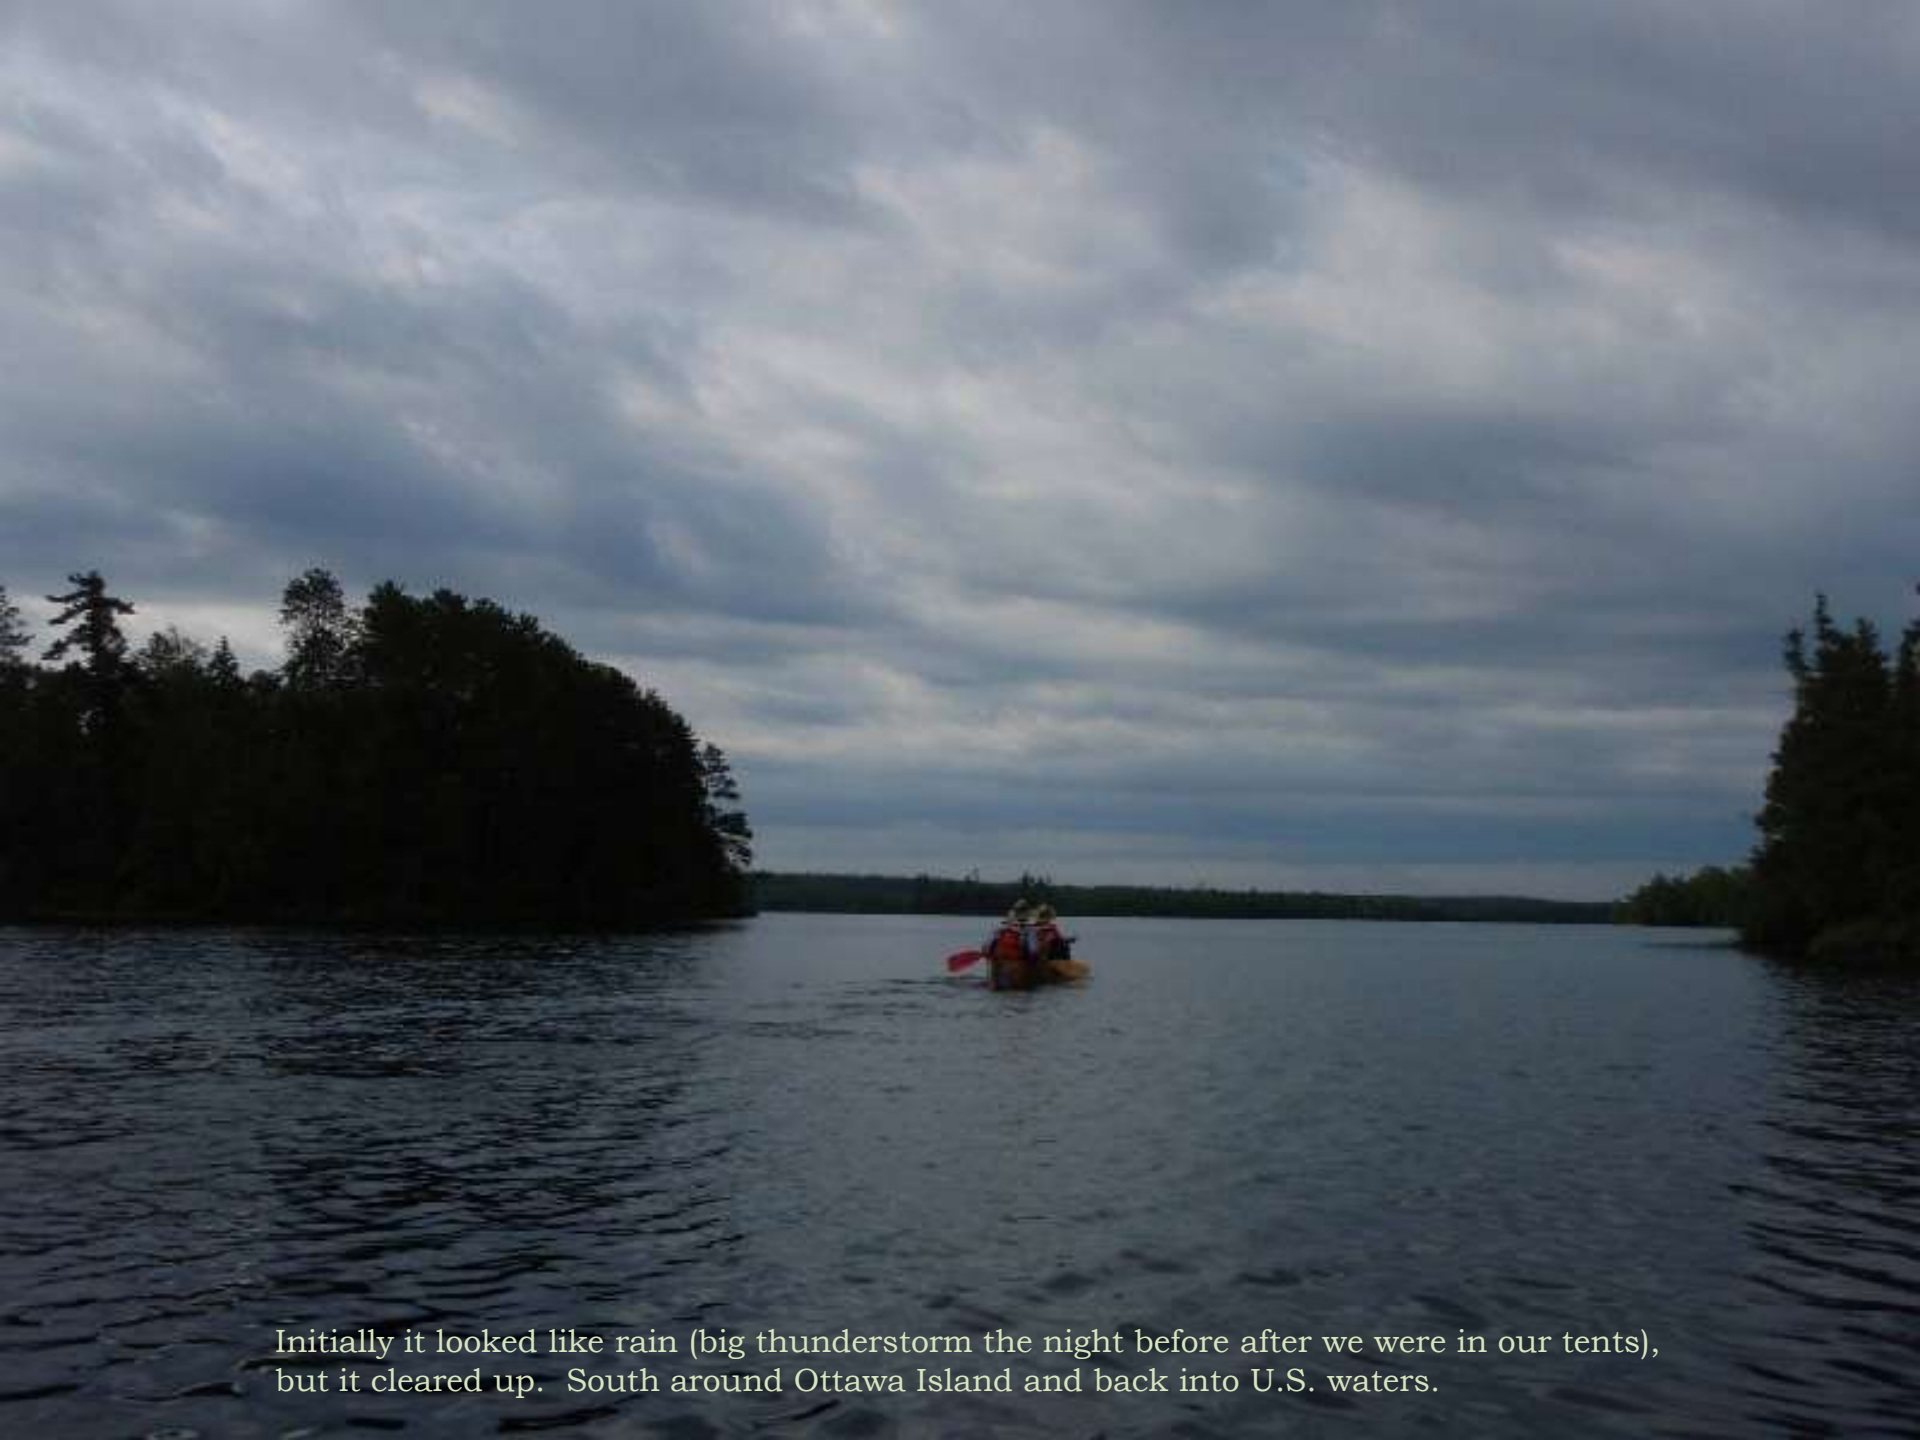

Persistent brown squirrel

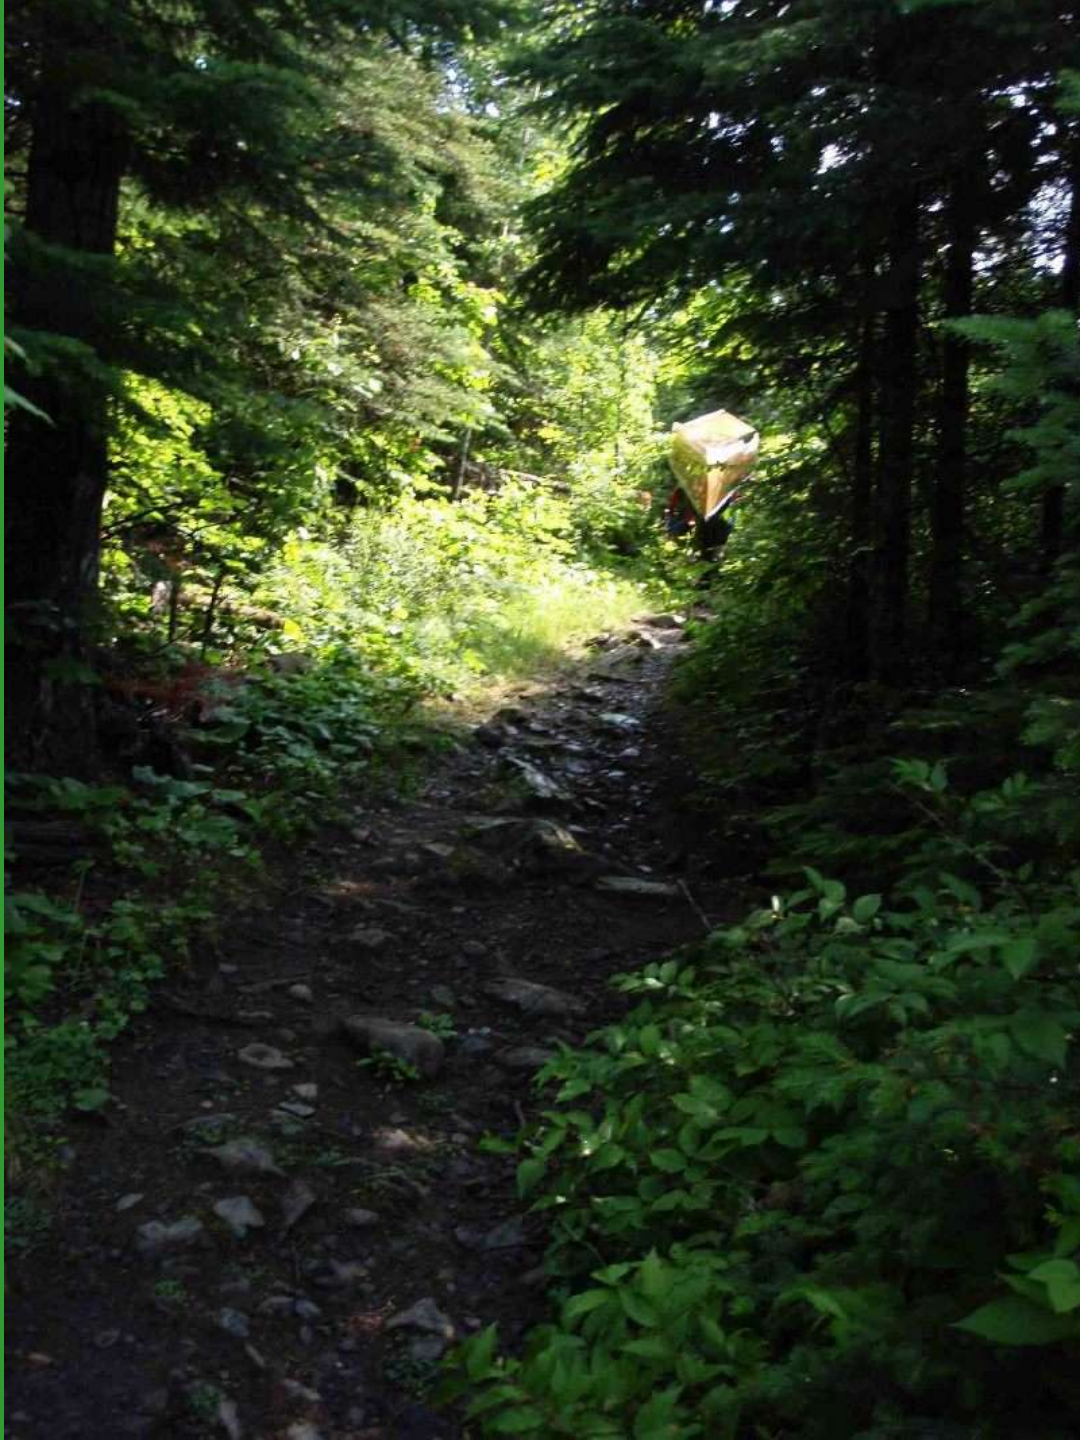

Initially it looked like rain (big thunderstorm the night before after we were in our tents), but it cleared up. South around Ottawa Island and back into U.S. waters.

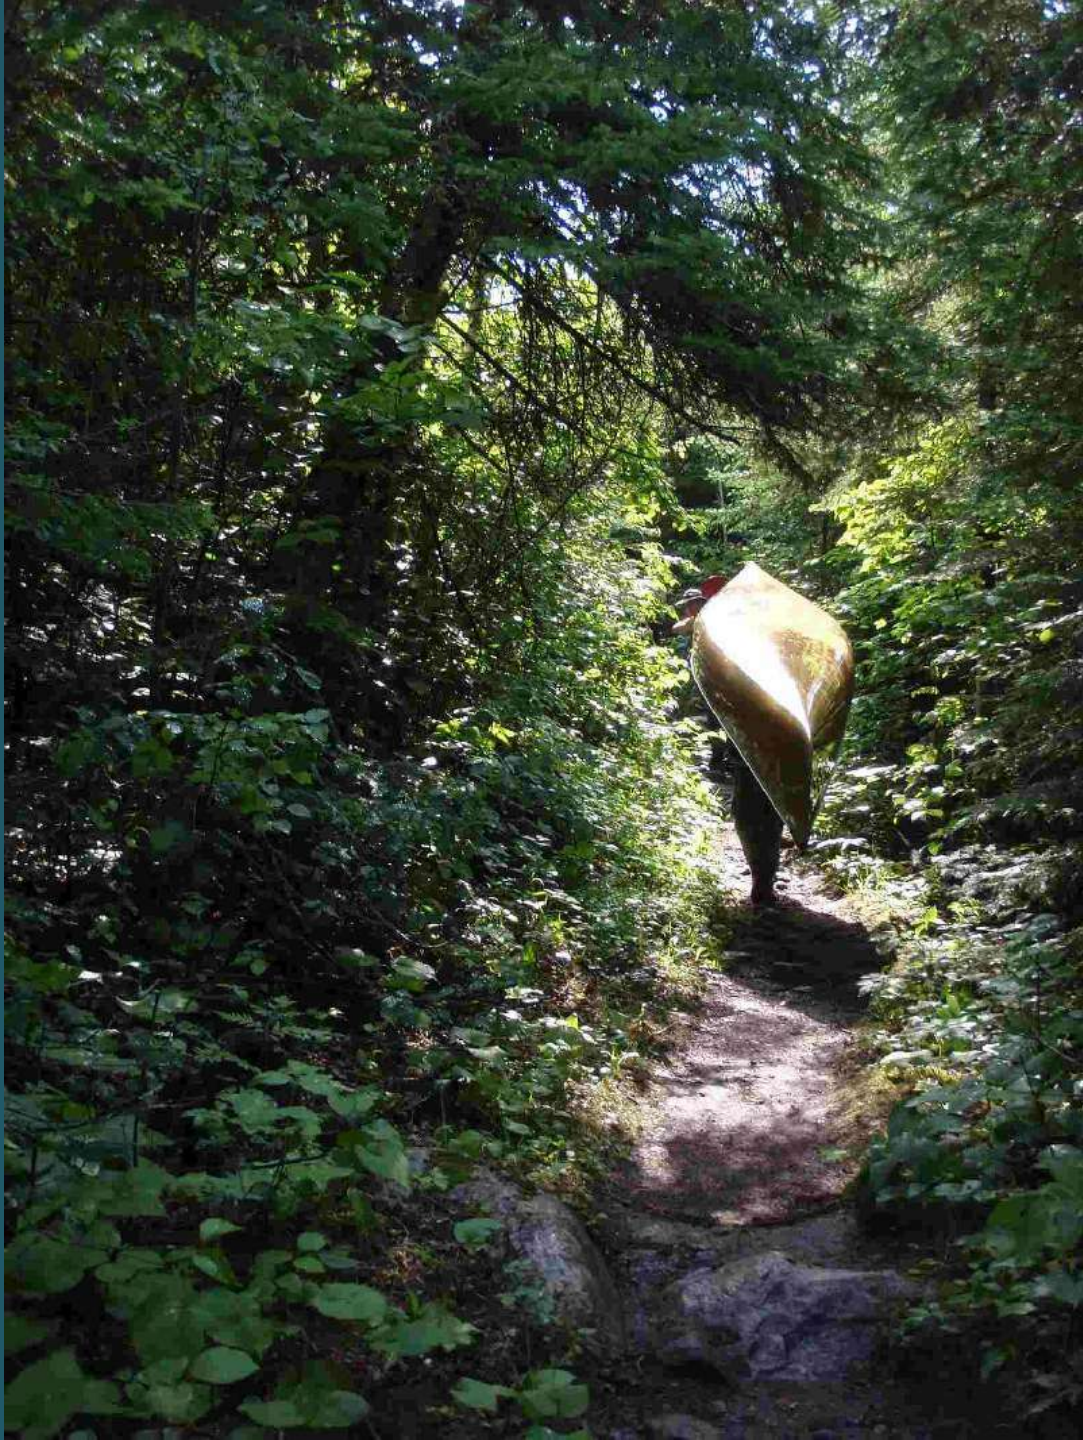

Portage, Wind Bay to Wind Lake

West end of Wind Lake

Water lilies

Jim "Santa clausing" again,
175 rods to Moose Lake

Anthony's next

Moose Lake, our last portage is over

Loon in the water

Northern Tier base straight ahead

Arrived at island across from base at 12:30 to find Crew C already in

Storytelling

BOUNDARY WATERS CANOE AREA

SUPERIOR National Forest

...then cards!

Jam-up at the dock because the adult in charge of the dock didn't know how to handle it in an organized fashion and didn't care what the second-year interpreters were trying to tell him.

Joe's triumphant return, the concussion wasn't serious

Because of the order crews were checked in, our check-in process could not be completed in time for Crew A to be ferried to Customs and Immigration that afternoon. (But several NT staffer did try to help.) Crews B and E were even further behind. That doomed our early departure the next morning.

Checking in behind Crew D

Crew A, reunited, E062811A

The drying shed

Crew C at the near window checking in gear

“Rendezvous“

Crew B skit

Crew D's Gerad sings the hits, with
E.B. and Tim in support

Relaxing game of cards before bed

Day 8 – July 6, 2011 – Looking for the bus after breakfast

Through Ely, MN on the bus

That feels so good!

C2

DELTA

I gotta try this!

Return to BWI airport, evening of July 6, 2011

NT CREW E062811A

Conor E.
Anthony J.
Joseph M.
Mr. Rick J.

William S.
James B.*
Mr. Gary M.
Mr. Dale B.*

With Tim B. playing the part of
"Most Excellent Interpreter"

* Completed
Triple Crown Award

Troop 264
Brookeville-Olney, MD

www.troop264olney.net